

The Daily Courant.

Monday, March 6 1704

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 11.

Vienna, February 27.

Colonel Dimursen, a Dane, arriv'd here the 22d from Moravia; he reports that the Danish Troops which were canton'd in those Parts, are march'd from thence and have pass'd the Danube to joyn General Heister who commands on the Leita. Count Ledistag arriv'd the same day, with the News that the Baron de Tige, Collonel of a Regiment of Cuirassiers, with 800 Horse and 400 Mufqueteers, had attack'd and beaten a considerable Body of the Rebels in Transylvania, killing 1000 of them, with their chief Leader Theorday, and taking 127 Prisoners; on our side only 60 Men were kill'd. Letters from Hermanstad confirm this News, and add, that 2 Pieces of Cannon, 6 Standards, and 3 pair of Kettle-Drums were taken by the Imperialists. There is certain Advice, that the Rebels in an Assault they made lately on Zatmar were repuls'd with great loss. 'Tis likewise advis'd, that the Rebels who were advanc'd to Oedenburg in hopes to take it, meeting a very vigorous Resistance, have thought fit to draw off and march towards Wifelbourg near the Lake of Neusidel; and that thereupon our Troops are march'd that way to observe them, and are encamp'd at Swadorff.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated March 11.

Heidelberg, March 4. Letters from Presburg in Hungary advise, that Count Berezeni one of the chief Leaders of the Hungarian Malecontents, being very ill of a Bruise he receiv'd by a fall from his Horse, sent to the Governour to desire his Lady might be permitted to come out of that Town to him; which was granted; And that General Heister had receiv'd a Letter without any Name to it, advising him to forbear coming to a general Action with the Malecontents, because they are inclinable to an Accommodation, and assuring him they drink the Healths of the Emperor and the King of the Romans every day very loyally, have taken Arms only to obtain the Redress of their Grievances, and will lay them down as soon as their Demands are granted, among which one is, that they may have leave to choose another Palatin in the room of Prince Esterhasi. There is Advice from Vienna, that the depos'd and imprison'd Sultan Mustapha is dead of Grief. And from Warsaw, that considerable Sums of Money have been lately remitted thither, to facilitate the Election of the Prince of Conti to the Crown of Poland. Some pretend, endeavours will be us'd to get Prince Ragotski elected to that Crown.

Philipsburg, March 4. All the Troops in these Parts are in Motion; in order to observe the Enemy who are drawing together on the Danube, and to prevent their being joyn'd by the Recruits they expect from Strasburg. To which end our Troops are provided with Bread and all things necessary for repairing at first notice whither soever they shall be commanded. The Black Forrest is yet unpassable, by reason of the deep Snows; And General Thungen has set his Troops at work to throw up a Line from Fridlingen on the Danube to Seivatingen on the Lake of Constance.

Frankfort, March 5. Prince Lewis of Baden is not gone yet from Alschaffenburg, to take upon him the Command of the Troops that are in the Lines of Buhl and Stohlhoffen. And 'tis reported at present, that the Count de Frise is appointed Commander in Chief of those Troops.

Breslau, March 2. The 28th of last Month the Polish Princes James and Constantine Sobieski going from hence to Olau, were way-laid and taken by a Party of Saxons commanded by Collonel Vrangeli; who disarm'd and carry'd them to Leipfich.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 11.

Amsterdam, March 11. The News we have receiv'd from Breslau, touching the seizing of the Princes James and Constantine Sobieski, being confirm'd by Letters of the 5th instant from Leipfich, which say, those Princes were brought Prisoners thither and put into the Citadel, there seems to be no room for doubting the Truth of it. 'Tis prudent to wait, however, till these first Advices are thoroughly confirm'd by the next Letters, before we give intire Credit to it. 'Tis pretended some Letters were found about Prince James, one of them written by the King of Sweden, which discover the Measures design'd to be taken by his Swedish Majesty to make that Prince King of Poland.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 1.

Madrid, Feb. 15. Orders are given for sending the King's Field-Equipage from hence the 20th instant, and his Majesty's Departure is fix'd to be the first of next Month. The Artillery and Ammunitions that were got ready at Seville and sent to Badajos, arriv'd there the 8th instant, as are all the Troops that are to serve on that side. The last Detachment of the French Auxiliaries is advanc'd to Valladolid, and to day the Duke of Berwick arriv'd here.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 11.

Paris, March 1. The General Officers of the King's Armies are to serve where they did last Year; with this Alteration only, that the Marshal de Villars is to command in Flanders in the room of the Marshal de Boufflers. They write from Douay that the Train of Artillery order'd to be provided there, was got ready by the 20th of last Month. Yesterday a Courier arriv'd from Rome with the Pope's Answer to the Letter written by the King about the Affair of Savoy; and 'tis said his Holiness disowns what is said in that Letter of his being inform'd that K. Charles II. had signified to his Predecessor his Intention of making a Will in favour of the House of Bourbon. From Rochefort they write, that the Squadron which is sitting out there for the West-Indies, is ready to sail for Cadix, and only waits the arrival of Monsieur du Casse. Letters from Spain tell us, that the Duke of Berwick arriv'd at Madrid the 15th Ult. That War against Portugal would be declar'd there this day; and that Monsieur de Chateaufneuf, our Ambassador at Lisbon, will leave that City as soon as the Archduke arrives.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated March 11.

Lorrain, March 3. By Letters from the Court of France we learn, that the Marshal de Tallard has taken leave of the King, and will set out for Strasburg tomorrow. The Departure of the Marshals de Villeroy and Villars for Flanders is not yet fix'd. The following Placart has been publish'd at Paris.

By the King.

HIS Majesty being inform'd, that the English and Dutch seize all the Danish Ships that put to Sea, for France or Spain, out of other Ports than those that are under the Dominion of the King of Denmark; pursuant to the Treaty made between that King and the States General in 1701. And that the Inhabitants Inhabitants of the Territories in Germany belonging to the said King enjoy a perfect Neutrality; notwithstanding they have accepted the Imperial Avocatoria, and as Dependants on the Empire have furnish'd their Contingent of Men and Money against his Majesty. Thinks fit to order the Commanders of his Ships of War, and of all French Privateers, to seize such Danish Ships as come from any other Ports than those of Denmark and Norway, and are bound for the Enemy's Ports; which Ships so seiz'd and brought into any Port of France, shall with their Lading be adjudg'd good and lawful Prize, And His Majesty's further pleasure is, that the Ships and Goods, belonging to the Inhabitants of the Duchy of Holstein, part of the Dominions of the King of Denmark, and of the Territories in Germany belonging to him, shall be accounted Ships and Goods of Enemies, and as such be condemn'd lawful Prize, when they are brought into the Harbours of this Kingdom. Of which the Count de Tholouse, Admiral of France, is to take notice and see it executed. And the Officers of the Admiralty are commanded to publish and affix these Presents as usual.

Done at Versailles,

Sign'd LOUIS.

Jan. 23. 1704.

and underneath Phelypeaux.

Hague, March 9. The Secretary of Count Colier, our Ambassador at Constantinople, arriv'd here to day, with Letters from him for the States, among which Letters was one from the Grand Vizier, notifying to their High Mightinesses the new Sultan's Advancement to the Throne. This Secretary left Constantinople the 28th of January, at which time all was quiet there; but he says the Porte is making great Preparations of War. The Minister of the Czar of Muscovy has notified to the States, that his Master is determin'd to assist the King of Poland with all his Force. The Officers that are here are order'd to repair forthwith to their respective Garrisons and Regiments. Some Persons that left Dunkirk 4 days ago report, that 13 Men of War and Frigates are fitting out in that Harbour, and 2 at Ostend.
